For the first time since last October, the big Japanese liner Chiyu Maru will pay a visit to Manila, the capital of the Philippine Islands. Vessels of the size of the Chiyu and Tenyo Maru have not been diverted to the Philippine port for many months, and in some quarters it has been said that the larger vessels in the joint trans-Pacific service maintained by the Pacific Mail and the Togo Kisen Kaisha have been substituted by smaller steamers owing to an alleged insufficient depth of water to be found at the new Manila wharves.

The Chiyu arrived at her berth at Alakoa wharf at 10 o'clock this morning after the completion of a fine run down from San Francisco. Being a vessel of foreign registry, the Chiyu brings no freight for Honolulu. In her spacious hold there are at least three thousand tons of supplies and munitions of war destined for the military and naval base in the Philippines. Among this freight is a quantity of small arms and ammunition.

If such a thing as a divorce with the Pacific Mail and the Japanese line as the star performers is imminent, the officers on board the Chiyu Maru profess absolute ignorance concerning the much-mooted separation. They claim that the first intimation that such a move was pending came through a wireless received the other evening from Honolulu.

Four cabin passengers will leave the Chiyu Maru at Honolulu. Sixty-nine first-class travelers are proceeding to the Far East, and these include a sprinkling of missionaries and Philippine Insular government employees returning from leave of absence.

In the Chiyu steerage there is a motley and assorted array of Asiatics. Of a total of 159 passengers traveling in this class, 87 are Japanese, 64 Chinese and 21 Indians.

The invasion of the Hindoo or what is now termed the "Unbleached Briton," has stirred up a great rumormongering along the Pacific Coast. The Chiyu Maru is carrying back to Hongkong twenty deported East Indians. They have been found suffering with an infectious disease, mainly owing to their filthy habits and mode of living. While large numbers of Hindoos continue to migrate to the United States, of late a large percentage have been turned back by the Federal quarantine and immigration authorities.

The little yacht Sweetheart was sighted by the Chiyu officers at an early hour this morning. She displayed flags denoting that she expected to arrive off port before noon. Purser "Billie" Chapman is said to have fairly outdone himself in providing entertainment for the passengers. On last Friday evening Chapman and his able henchman, "Tommy" McCombe, arranged a program of vaudeville and athletics that will go down the annals of T. K. K. history as a nine-time winner. Japanese wrestling, jiu-jitsu, juggling and other forms of indoor games assisted in a very pleasant evening being passed.

Each day deck sports were the rule, and one enterprising photographer has perpetrated the various events and has met with much success in the disposal of the souvenirs.

Among the few important through passengers is the Honorable Wilhelm Becker, said to be Vice-President and member of the Prussian Diet. He is accompanied by Mrs. Becker and will make a round-the-world tour before returning to Cologne.

Bishop E. E. Hoss is a well-known missionary who leaves the vessel at Kobe and tranships for steamer to Korea.

MORE PINKHAM CURES

Added to the Long List due to This Famous Remedy.

Camden, N.J.—"It is with pleasure that I add my testimonial to your already long list—hoping that it may induce others to avail themselves of this valuable medicine. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I suffered from terrible headaches, pain in my back and right side, was tired and nervous, and so weak I could hardly stand. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound restored me to health and made me feel like a new person, and it shall always have my praise."—Mrs. W. P. VALENTINE, 602 Lincoln Avenue, Camden, N.J.

Gardiner, Me.—"I was a great sufferer from a female disease. The doctor said I would have to go to the hospital for an operation, but Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound completely cured me in three months."—Mrs. S. A. WILLIAMS, R. F. D. No. 14, Box 39, Gardiner, Me.

Because your case is a difficult one, doctors having done you no good, do not continue to suffer without giving Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. It surely has cured many cases of female ills, such as inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, indigestion, dizziness, and nervous prostration. It costs but a trifle to try it, and the result is worth millions to many suffering women.

and Miss Wilson will remain over at Honolulu and spend a couple of weeks in visiting the points of interest throughout the islands.

Fritz Materna is a prominent business man, with headquarters at Shanghai.

Having completed an enjoyable visit to the mainland, E. C. Jones, a newspaper man and writer of note, is returning to Japan, where he will resume his duties on the Advertiser, a leading English publication at Tokyo.

F. E. Chapin, formerly engaged in the legal profession at Washington, D. C., is going to Japan and is now known as an advisor connected with the Japanese legation.

Among the Manila-bound passengers is Judge James Ross, who is returning to his duties on the bench after a brief visit to the island.

The local postal officials received 239 sacks of mainland mail. The vessel brought files of the San Francisco dailies dating as late as July 19.

The Chiyu Maru will be dispatched for Japan ports, Manila and Hongkong at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning. About ten passengers have booked for passage to the Orient.

ANOTHER DENIAL

In its desire to secure expressions of opinions favorable to the Woolley-Thurston prohibition propaganda the morning paper is not hesitating to credit citizens with statements which the prohibitionists think they ought to make.

In Sunday's Advertiser the following appears:

"J. CARLO—I won't say how I intend to vote but I will say that six months ago I cut out intoxicants entirely. The gratifying result is that today I am feeling better and keener than I ever did in my life before."

"I don't see why they have me make that statement," said Mr. Carlo this morning. "The fact is that I am drinking beer now for my health's sake and have never felt better in my life."

VOTE! AND VOTE "NO"

NEW ORPHEUM.

"A Family Cyclone," a musical comedy which promises many surprises, is the offering at the New Orpheum this evening. Like all of the other pieces which have delighted Orpheum patrons, "A Family Cyclone" promises to emulate its predecessor for popularity and sustain the high reputation which the members of the Casino Mustal Comedy Company have made for themselves since coming to Honolulu. "A Family Cyclone" is said to be one of the funniest farces of its kind that has yet been seen here and has many catchy and tuneful numbers interpolated. Musical Director Chas. Just has some pretty chorus ensembles arranged for the new piece. Miss Maude Rockwell will sing, by special request, "For All Eternity" and "Annie Laurie." Miss Canfield, Miss Schuyler, Olga Steck and Miss Atkins have special numbers.

NOTHING more will be done in regard to building additions to the Moana Hotel until the result of this prohibition agitation is decided. Prohibition is a mistake for this country and will hurt our prosperity. The present liquor law is a good one, and is entitled to the support of the people. Let them have higher license if they want it. In my opinion, prohibition is wrong. Tourists do not want to be tied down by any such piece of legislation as a prohibition law. They won't come and that is all there is to it.

"AERO-CAR-BOAT" FLIES

Strange Convertible Machine Goes Through Army Tests.

Berlin, July 9.—In the gray dawn of a morning Berlin was traversed by one of the queerest vehicles ever built—an aeroplane convertible at will into a motor car or a motor boat. Its journey was made as an automobile, and it was driven by the inventor, Herr Fritz Grawert.

The machine, which is intended to serve as an engine of offense in war, has behaved more successfully on terra firma than it has so far done in the air. It was taken to the military airship station at Tegel, where it is to exhibit its versatile accomplishments for the benefit of the army authorities. Major Gross, commander of the aerial fleet, said today that he was favorably impressed with the Grawert's possibilities.
